DISPLAY FORUM

The Display forum is at the heart of the fashion information. It showcases the style highlights and key accessories for men's and women's ready-to-wear and leathersgoods decorations for Autumn-Winter 2016-2017.

The summary and the Autumn-Winter 2016-2017 trend book show you the style inspirations the colour highlights and the types of samples and textures that we are looking for.

To appear in this forum, please send a selection of separate samples, chosen according to the highlights of the season.

IMPORTANT:
Please label this selection "Display Forum"

JEWEL FOCUS

The Jewel Focus forum showcases the savoir-faire of the various professions within the fashion jewellery sector. To take part in this forum, please refer to the specific jewellery themes for the Autumn-Winter 2016-2017 season.

Please send us a selection of components or finished products destined for use in the fashion jewellery sector.

IMPORTANT:
Your samples and components should be clearly labelled "Jewel Case"

RETURNING JEWEL CASE SAMPLES

Given the value of certain jewellery products and components, and providing you make a request prior to the show, our team will return your finished products to you when the show closes.
